We may use e-mail where available and appropriate to save on our postage costs.

Our Bulletin, Landscape History Today, is published online. In the interests of the environment and to keep costs down, please think very carefully whether you really need a printed copy of the Bulletin. If you do, please contribute £5 towards the costs of production and postage.

From time to time (currently once or twice a month), the Society receives e-mails advertising events of interest to our members – day-schools, exhibitions, conferences and so on. If you have supplied an e-mail address, would you like these to be forwarded to you? YES/NO.
